RECEIPTS.

Wheat one to two and a half cents higher in New York. Corn lower.

Look out for another cold snap. The wave is coming from the Northwest. Up to date $465.50 have been raised in Chattanooga for the Irish sufferers.

Scarlet fever is almost epidemic in Memphis, and fears are expressed that it will become entirely so.

The Jasper road, running from Chattanooga to Jasper, a distance of 40 miles, has been levied on by Marion county for taxes due, and no train is allowed to pass over it.

They say there is no advance on Oliver Chilled Pows. The farmers ought to lay in their supply before the advance, which is sure to come. Woodruff & Co. keep a large stock.

Farmers, Attention! We will have 25 car loads of Land Plaster on hand and for sale. Call early before the supply is exhausted. W. W. Woodruff & Co.

Ben, Dennis, col., was frozen to death Thursday, near White's Station, Shelby county. He was on a drunk, and his friends put him in a cabin, without fire, in order to sober him. He sobered.

Memphis and Charleston Railroad stock is booming. A few days ago it was selling at four cents; now twenty cents is offered and twenty-five asked. The reported purchase of the Memphis and Little Rock road is the bulging power.

In November Lewis Freeman gave his wife a terrible whipping in Jackson. Shortly after this she began to grow weak, and finally died. A coroner's jury got hold of the facts, which were unknown until then, recommended Lewis to the tender mercies of the authorities.

There was an election in Edgefield and Nashville last Saturday to decide whether or not these two cities should be annexed. The vote in Nashville was 1,059 for annexation and 250 against it. In Edgefield 493 voted "aye" and 252 "no." Henceforth there will be only one city there.

Combs, Hair Brushes, Cloth Brushes, Tooth Brushes, Nail Brushes, Bath Brushes, Dressing Cases, Cologne Sets, Hand Mirrors, etc., at Lyons & McCampbell's.

Fresh Oranges, Lemons, Cocoanuts, Apples, &c., at John Huddell's.

Advertising Notes.

We call special attention to the advertisement in another column of W. E. Mountcastle, who has embarked in the wholesale grain, produce and commission business in Atlanta, Ga., and who solicits consignments from East Tennessee. Mr. Mountcastle is a young man of substantial business qualifications and energy. He is a native of Mossy Creek, son of Maj. A. J. Mountcastle, a well known and influential citizen of upper East Tennessee. The new house furnishes the best of references in Atlanta, and we cheerfully recommend it to East Tennessee merchants or others wishing to make consignments to the Atlanta market. Mr. Mountcastle's commission department is under the management of W. G. McGaughey, who has the advantage of a long and favorable experience in that line.

For the cash, will sell very low, one new Buggy, one one-horse Wagon, new Hub and Cotton Mattresses, one Velocipede, two good second-hand Sewing Machines in good order, two good Bureaus.

E. A. AKERS.

Our Market Reports.

Mr. Jack Grubb, of this county, a subscriber to the WHOLESALE CHRONICLE at Lansing, says by reading our paper he made two cents per pound on his bacon and 15 cents per bushel on his wheat. This is doubtless the experience of many others. The market reports of the CHRONICLE are corrected daily. We intend that they shall be accurate and full, so that no farmer in this section can afford to be without them.

Criminal Court Notes.

Mordica Miles, the tramp who was arrested and bound to court some months since for stealing a watch from Mr. O. G. Vanderhoof, was put through the Criminal Court with a rush yesterday, and got a sentence of three years in the penitentiary. He created a little excitement, however, by an escape. While they were getting ready to go to trial, just after dinner, Miles was sitting by the stove and seeking an opportunity stepped out of doors, and was off before any one knew it. Sheriff Reeder soon discovered his escape, procured a horse and followed him, capturing him on Temperance Hill in East Knoxville. Miles was brought back and put upon his trial, but before it was concluded he pleaded guilty, and judgment was pronounced in his case.

Paul Kincaid, colored, the feather lifter, who was sent for nine years, argued a motion for a new trial, but was refused. Horace Hughes, convicted as an accomplice in the same transaction, was given a new trial.

George Anderson, convicted of stealing Dr. Coward's horse, was refused a new trial, and judgment was passed on him for three years in the penitentiary.

At the adjournment of the Court, Frank Taylor was on trial for breaking into the shop of C. B. Coomes and stealing several pairs of boots. He was among the prisoners who escaped from jail when Hut Amarine did, and was recaptured by Sheriff Reeder, on Powell's River.

Berry Gow.

A large audience turned out last night to witness the first appearance in Knoxville of that prince of comedians, Joe Murphy, in his great specialty, Kerry Gow. Joe is emphatically the best comedian that ever trod our local boards, and his reputation is transcendent. From his first bow until the curtain fell after the true lovers had united, the good was blessed and the two villains punished he had the large crowd at his pleasure, either to roar with laughter or swallow down the choking lumps that had a strong tendency to rise in the throat. His Dan O'Hara was the best character on record, and whether in his love scenes with Nora, or his tiffs with the Vulture, whether in the smitery or in the prison, he was always the same courageous, jolly, sympathetic Irishman, with a heart as true as steel.

The support Mr. Murphy has with him is many degrees above the average. Miss Young made a charming Nora and her description of the races was worthy of much praise.

Miss Wiedman's delineation of the little spitfire, Alice Doyle, brought down the house, while Martin's O'Drive was not far behind. The parts of the Drews, father and son, were well played. Mr. Murray's Hoy, or the Vulture, was in the main excellent, but in some parts he rather failed to come up to the situation.

To-night the Combination will give their last performance in Marden's Shann Blue, a companion piece to Kerry Gow. The piece is spoken of as being of rare merit wherever it has been played. It will pay everybody to turn out to hear Murphy, for a good laugh is inevitable, and his better to laugh than weeping.

Complimentary Serenade.

The Old Fellows' Silver Cornet Band was out last night and honored Mr. J. L. Outreyhouse, of the firm of J. A. Galyon & Co., butchers, with a handsome serenade, on the event of his recent marriage. It was highly appreciated by Mr. Outreyhouse and his newly wedded wife, nee Miss Fannie Edgington.

Prompt Payment.

CROCKETT COMMANDERY, No. 60, ALAMO, TENN., Feb. 9, 1890.

To Subordinate Commanders wherever existing:

I take pleasure in acknowledging the prompt payment, by Wm. Wood, Supreme Treasurer, U. O. G. C., of $2,000, benefit on the recent death of my wife, E. D. Tatum.

Geo. F. Tatum, K. of R.

The above card speaks for itself, and recommends to high terms the United Order of the Golden Cross, as a benevolent Order. It is one of the best organizations of the kind in the country, was originated in Knoxville, and the headquarters are here. In January last, $2,000 was paid in Nashville, in benefit.

Personal.

Mr. H. W. Hall, the popular and enterprising shoe and hat man, has gone east after new goods, and the people of Knoxville may look for something stylish and up to date.

Dr. R. P. Eaton, of Eaton's Cross Roads, arrived in the city on yesterday evening's train.

Mr. Jas. Nichols, a prominent merchant and tobacco grower, of Marshall, N. C., is in the city on a business trip, stopping at the Central House.

The members of the Arbitration Court, now in session in this city, Chief Justice J. B. Cooke, and Associate Justices H. H. Ingersoll and W. V. Deaderick, together with Supreme Court Clerk, J. F. Deaderick, were furnished carriages by Mr. P. Dikla, son, and enjoyed a pleasant drive to his "Island Home" last Saturday afternoon. It was a source of much enjoyment to all of them.

The Opera House.

We wish to congratulate the management of the Opera House in the vast improvement in the music offered to the public last night, and the good order kept during the performance. There is no reason why the "Gods of the gallery" should be allowed to make a lively snail out of our only public hall, and we are glad this matter of behavior is being attended to.

A Loyal Soldier's Good Record.

Our esteemed and substantial friend, S. R. Rankin, of Jefferson county, in sending us a good list of subscribers for the WEEKLY, writes, under date of the 7th instant: "During the war I fought for the Republican party; and since I have been recruiting for it. I was married thirteen years ago to-day, and have six boys and four girls, ten children in all. How is that for loyalty?"

Mr. Rankin's record is a good one and will pass muster. Who can beat it?

Inquire for Them.

A Down-Town Merchant.

Having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby worse; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence, he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy.

The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and, although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

For sore throat, gargle with Pin's Cure, mixed with a little water. Relief is instant, jaundice, etc.
